THE FOURTH ANNUAL PENINSULA RESTAURANT WEEK KICKS OFF ON APRIL 19

The Peninsula's nine day celebration of food and local eateries runs April 19-27.

PALO ALTO, CA – March 14, 2024 – Peninsula Restaurant Week, celebrating the diverse food and dining scene on the San Francisco Peninsula, will be held April 19 to 27 throughout San Mateo and north Santa Clara counties, according to host Embarcadero Media Foundation.

The event will feature hundreds of participating restaurants offering special menus or discounted meals all during the same nine-day period. Dine out during Peninsula Restaurant Week to support local eateries. It's a great time for residents and visitors to discover new places or show love to old favorites. Enjoy the wide range of culinary offerings with special menu items just for Peninsula Restaurant Week!

Diners can reserve tables and view special menus online beginning Friday, March 15, for unique special meals at www.PeninsulaRestaurantWeek.com.

This year's participants will include a wide range of restaurants offering special menus for dine-in, delivery, and/or takeout. Restaurants up and down the Peninsula, from the 32 cities and towns between South San Francisco and Sunnyvale and out to the coast are invited to participate in the event. Participating restaurants will be listed and promoted at <https://www.PeninsulaRestaurantWeek.com>, with additional restaurants onboarding daily up until opening night on April 19.

There is no cost for restaurants to participate. Each will determine their special offerings for the week, which will be published online and through social media.

"As a nonprofit media organization, one of Embarcadero Media Foundation's goals is to build community through shared experiences. Peninsula Restaurant Week celebrates all the culinary offerings on the Peninsula. Join us to experience the Peninsula's unique and thriving foodie scene and grow support for local businesses.” said Adam Dawes, the CEO for Embarcadero Media Foundation.

Peninsula Restaurant Week 2024 is hosted by The Peninsula Foodist and The Six Fifty, two popular online publications featuring dining, food, and recreation coverage of the Peninsula.
